After a whirlwind tour through Lithuania, Finland and USA and seeing what is happening economically, socially, politically and spiritually in the West there must be great cause for concern in every nation and at every level of the Church. Political "CORRECTNESS" is the most amazing way in supposedly "free thinking" societies where freedom of expression and freedom of rights are fundamental to suppress and silence particularly Christians who are perceived to be the "trouble makers." It is amazing how anybody can say anything they like against Jesus Christ but let any Christian even quote the truth of God's Word and somebody who is offended will shout, "Foul!" and easily find a law that represses the same. Jesus said that these things are going to happen. Christianity is under major attack and it is often so subtle. The celebrated Da Vinci code - that we all know and accept is a load of fictional hogwash - is far more subtle than that, however. It is an attack on the very DEITY and the DIVINITY of Jesus Christ who is portrayed as "Just ONE of us..." What an absolute lie. If it leaves a lingering thought of "Just Maybe..." in one person, then it has achieved its DIABOLIC purpose. And, what most Christians often forget is that such heresy is endorsed by strong LYING and SEDUCING spirits that are easily able to bring the mind into total bondage.

Beloved, there are so many causes and so many conflicting opinions even in the Church that it all may so easily become very confusing. We must hold on to the basic truths of our faith and never waver. We must know His Word, stand firmly upon it and always be ready to give an account of the absolute truth of this absolute Word that has been tried in the furnace seven times and emerged so PURE so let every man be a liar who holds to any other persuasion.

ARE YOU COMPROMISING?

We must stay focused. Get His vision for your life both general and specific. Remember we are living in a rapidly changing world where material things may literally be lost overnight. We must have a KINGDOM mentality and VISION and within this framework or paradigm, we must pursue the Lord's personal vision for my life.

We must listen and obey the pure voice of the blessed Holy Spirit whose whole ministry is to take us to LIFE through death.

The Lord Jesus is looking for YOU in this hour: a victorious, overcoming, conquering believer to shine as never before. Never stoop to the pressure of political correctness for it is compromise and compromise is of the devil. We are to speak the TRUTH in love and never back down from our highest, most noble calling no matter what anybody may think or say or do.

The world is being shaken. Did not the Lord declare this? Everything that is shakeable will be shaken and He is the Lord who is doing it. How lonely and isolated and shaken Luther must have felt with all of Rome against him. BUT, if God be for us and, indeed He is and will fight for us if we stand uncompromisingly for His absolute truth then who can be against us?

The greatest things to be done are yet to be done in the Kingdom. This is your hour to shine as never before and show that Jesus is the Christ and there is none other and there is none other name given among men whereby we must be saved.

OUR SUDAN WORK REVIVED

It is always wonderful and amazing to get reports of how the work is progressing and lately, we are beginning to get wonderful and exciting feedback from the graduates who are out in the field doing exactly what they were trained to do. Here is a letter just received from Joseph Nagib who is STILL our Sudanese Administrator. We are implementing a plan to bring in 5 graduates a year to Malawi and give them further in depth training in the work of the ministry and how to prepare for their work in an independent southern Sudan. It is interesting to note that Joseph makes clear reference to John Garang's death for basically standing in the way of what God wants to establish.

As soon as we have the first five names, we will publish them and perhaps old supporters might like to pick them up.

"Dear Mike,

Thanks for your quick response to my long and over-due thinking on our own dilemma about Southern Sudan. You know Salva Kiir (President of Southern Sudan and Vice President of all Sudan who succeeded John Garang) is a very busy man now, but if you send him anything I will be able to deliver at his office or house since the door is open for me and he will welcome me. Rieck Machar (No. 2) is acting on his behalf, because Salva is too busy in Khartoum all the time.

Regards the students and graduates. It is easy to get passports from Juba, and since those will be supported by the newly formed Chaplain Corps it will be easy to arrange and I will finalize the rest. It is my duty to see Kalibu/Shekinah live on in Southern Sudan through this new endeavor. Since I am close to the majority of the graduates I can really see in their eyes the pictures of the suffering of the Southerners. Some of the graduates from the first year are so close to me as if I am their parent. I have tried to support them in a small way to see that they continue with their secondary education and do the work. The idea of sending 5 graduates every year will revive the concept of Kalibu/Shekinah as the hope of the people of Southern Sudan! Yes it is true. NO one has ever apologized or bothered to find out what went wrong although some have taken great interest and asked what is next? Yes it has been written in heaven that Kalibu would pull out and Garang would die in unclear circumstances. What shocking news to me when I was told Garang was aware from day one about all that had taken place in Kalibu and worse, that Garang's son, who you helped so much, was 100% involved in Kalibu problems and more which I will reveal to you one day. Sorry Mike but that is the truth. The system was not working, everything was based on hearsay. But now, let us revive all this. I know the kind of heart you have it is not easy to get into today's world, but I know Michael Howard the man, and I know Michael Howard the preacher and that you will be a savior for us here because of Jesus. I will begin from here with a mandate from you to re-organize in such a way that the first 5 will be ready before the end of the year. The government has to get them a passport and also pay some of the expenses. Free things are always taken for granted and you know I was not totally in favor of everything being given free to these guys when they were in Kalibu. I will organize myself and select the first 5 and submit their names to you for further screening before I could do anything, and then we begin from there. Will be in touch.

Love Joseph.

THE POWERLESS CHURCH : WHY TYRANTS PROSPER

Whenever the Church is weak and powerless, the enemy will flourish. For many years I have preached and contended that Zimbabwe has the wicked Heman/Hitler character in their president, Robert Mugabe because the Church is ineffective and cowardly. Here is a letter I recently received out of Zimbabwe. What a tragedy is taking place there! What repression! What GENOCIDE and the world stands idly by and says nothing. Entitled, "GIGGLING AND CHORTLING," the letter continues:

"It was cause for great sadness this week to watch a delegation of church leaders being filmed by state television at the start of a much publicized meeting with President Mugabe. They sat in a gleaming white tent, at tables covered with spotless white cloths and laughed almost uncontrollably at the words of the President. For a few moments the address actually had to stop because the clerics were giggling and chortling so much. The cause for their hilarity was Mugabe's reference to Archbishop Pius Ncube's public statement that he was praying for the President's death. I sat in shock, overwhelmed with despair. This public display of hilarity represented the moral leadership of our country. These are the men who are supposed to be taking the pain and suffering of ordinary people to the President and appealing for an end to the horrific deprivations. Their laughter went beyond the bounds of diplomacy and even if it was just for show or for the camera, it sent a chill through the air.

I cannot express my feelings but I am still haunted by an image given to me by a church man in 2002. Perhaps repeating that image now may help our giggling clerics.

Just before the March 2002 elections a small Evangelical Church in Marondera was taken over by militant youths. The Pastor was barricaded into the Church building and subjected to taunts, threats, harassment and intimidation. He was accused of being a supporter of the opposition MDC. Some hours later the Pastor was freed but the youths stayed behind and used the Church as a re-education centre. In the following weeks there were reports of numerous people being taken to the Church and beaten, accused of supporting the opposition. The Pastor was refused entry to his Church and so he held Sunday services in the garden of his home. It was some weeks later when the youths who had seized the Church building finally moved out and the Pastor returned to find horror. Loud speaker equipment had been stolen. Electrical wiring had been ripped off the walls. Carpets, chairs, a tape recorder, tea urn, cups and saucers had been looted. Even a box of children's toys had gone. Worst of all was what had been left behind. Witnessed only by God, the walls and floors of the Church were stained with blood: the blood of the ordinary men and women who live in Marondera. Many people from all over the world, desperate to help Zimbabwe, offer their prayers for us in church every week. May they pray now for courage, dignity and strength for our church leaders. This is not the time for giggling and chortling it is the time for determination, sacrifice and strong moral leadership." (We continue to support the elderly in Zimbabwe. If anyone would like to help by contributing $30 a month please call Kansas City. This is a powerful and effective ministry.)

INTERCESSION HOTLINE

In 1963 the Saudi Government - supposedly friends of USA and West - established the Muslim Student's Association (MSA) that now has over 150 chapters in Colleges and Universities across the USA. Almost all members of the MSA are plants who are fundamentalist Moslem and ihadists that basically makes them followers of Osama Bin Laden. Under the guise of this association and other associations across North America and Europe militant Islamists are actively training for Jihad or holy war as they shout, "Alahu Akbar!" meaning, "God is great!" This is the ihadists battle cry as he goes into the literal fight. A huge training facility is housed at 485 Best Street, Buffalo, New York. Buffalo Common Council Member, Charley Fisher publicly declared, " I have sources - inside sources. These people at BEST are armed and dangerous. They are doing paramilitary training there..." Why is nothing being done? Simply because everyone is terrorized by potential accusations of "RACIAL PROFILING" and of not being that all important, "POLITICALLY CORRECT." In the recent "TERRORIS CONFERENCE" in Washington DC, the experts from former CIA Director to three and four star generals declared, "We don't have an answer!"

"WELL, I DO!"

For sometime I have been asking the Lord whether I should take up the burden of intercession for the exposing of Osama Bin Laden and all the terror networks. This was spurred on by the fact that we had interceded for the real Islam to be exposed and this began to happen over the Moslem reactions to cartoons of Mohammed published first in Denmark and then other countries. I did not particularly want the assignment to take on Osama Bin Laden and have been horrified that I have not personally met, as of yet, a single Christian who believes enough in the mightiness of God to begin to intercede for this matter. This is a matter for true intercession but such intercession cannot be done out of need or any other reason barring the Lord's request.

Two weeks ago, the Lord clearly spoke, "Now is the time to take MY burden concerning Osama Bin Laden." This burden is NOT for his salvation; it is NOT for his arrest or anything other than his being exposed and taken out. You have to, absolutely have to know the mind of the Lord and obey.

I am mobilizing believers all across the nations to open themselves to the blessed Holy Spirit in this matter and see if the Lord does not want you to be part of carrying His burden in the whole issue of Osama Bin Laden and international terrorism. Will you join me as the Spirit leads YOU?
