Beloved Partners and Friends

Warmest greetings to you and may the richest blessings from Africa be showered upon you. It is so easy to lose sight and focus of the major issues in light of the joys, triumphs and victories or alternatively the burdens, heartaches and seeming defeats of this life. Christ is still on the throne and He will never be moved. Rejoice, I mean really REJOICE for He has conquered DEATH, the last enemy. It is swallowed up in the mighty triumph of Christ over the grave and death through the awesome power of His resurrection; a power so great that the very graves of Jerusalem were opened and the saints were seen walking the City on resurrection morning. What power, what incredible absolute power of a triumphant God and King who arose so victorious that all things are subdued under His feet.

Israel exists because of Jerusalem. The founding of the modern nation of Israel at midnight on 14th May 1948 was the prelude to the recapture of the City of Jerusalem. This incredible fact of history took place on 7th June 1967 at 10.00 a.m. when a contingent of Israeli soldiers rushed through St. Stephen's gate, down the Via Dolorosa to capture the ancient temple site in the old city. The military chaplain, Rabbi Shlomo Goren joined the troops at the Wailing Wall and with tears coursing down his face announced, "We are now realizing the dreams of the Jews for 2000 years. We have taken the City of God, we are entering the Messianic era. We shall never leave this place." What incredibly prophetic words he uttered.

Eschatologically, most interpreters place the beginning of the last generation or the budding of the fig tree as 1948. I believe this to be a misinterpretation and misunderstanding of the fundamental fact that Israel is all about Jerusalem, the City of God on earth. The fig tree budded on 7th June 1967. Jesus declared that one generation, "this generation," would see the time of trouble and the coming of the Son of Man. Beloved, 7th June of this year is the fortieth year since the capture of the City of Jerusalem and the ushering in of the Messianic era. It is incredibly significant and amazing that one generation has just been completed since the capture of Jerusalem. In the prophetic time clock of God, I do believe that we are going to witness some astonishing escalations of events in the Middle East after 7th June. Fie upon all who are of REPLACEMENT THEOLOGY! The time of the gentiles is about to come to an end so that the Lord can consummate His plan for the AGES and that plan includes natural Israel. In fact, His plan cannot take place without natural Israel! We are living in the most dramatic and dynamic of all ages. We are privileged to see these mammoth events taking shape before our eyes. What amazing things are happening and we, of all people are so honored to be witnesses of these events. Take your eyes off of your problems and heartaches no matter how huge they might be and securely fix them on the Lord. Gaze on His loveliness and beauty; really gaze upon Him and fall in love with Him and know Him, really know Him. These are His great events that are about to take place and His plans will be fulfilled. Look up through the rejoicing and the fun and the excitement and victories. Look up through the tears and heartaches and confusion and disorder. Look up, for your REDEMPTION DRAWETH nigh and He is coming with ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands. That makes a hundred trillions of people. What a great cloud of witnesses. No army has ever marched with such numbers. No commander has ever had control over such a multitude. BUT, the Captain of the Host of the Lord, Jesus the Christ the resurrected Lord has total control over such a mighty army not because of military command but because of amazing love. He is coming, not as a Lamb to the slaughter but as Judge of all the earth. He is coming in victory utterly complete. He is coming not to be mocked, ridiculed, spat upon and crucified but triumphantly as King of Kings and Lord of Lord to who every knee of every age will bow. I am so thrilled that I willingly bow now rather than being obligated to bow then. Every god and idol of every generation; every religious leader including Mohammed and Allah will be forced to bow their knee to Jesus Christ.

7th June is going to be so significant in God's time clock and will begin the blowing of the trumpets. All these things are prophesied and all must come to pass. BUT, above all, HE IS THE REVELATION of Almighty God and oh, to know Him and enjoy Him is beyond anything this world has to offer.

When the trumpet of the Lord shall sound
And time shall be no more
And the morning breaks eternal bright and fair
When the saved of earth shall gather
Over on the other shore
And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there.

Will YOU be there?

PASSING THE BATON

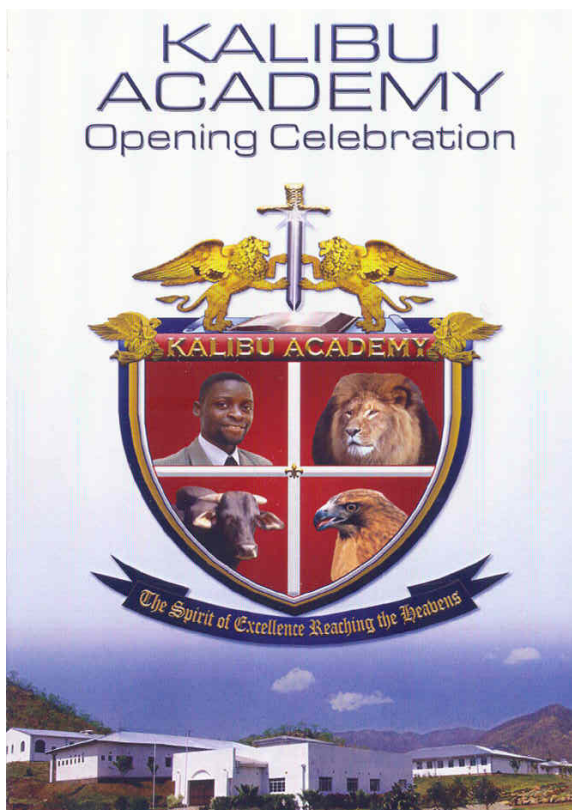

Our dear friend and co-worker passed away in Somerset, England on March 15th—the same day as our Aunt in Cornwall, England. I was at my Aunt's bedside when she died in peace—knowing that she was going to a better place.

I was also blessed to be at the funeral and Thanksgiving service for Hazel. John and Hazel have worked tirelessly in the U.K. for Shekinah Ministries. During our time in Southern Sudan they were able to assist in putting together numerous items that were desperately needed for the day to day running operations of the school. They have handled the book orders for the UK and have sent out the newsletter each month. While it is always a time of sadness for relatives and friends who miss their loved ones it should also be a time of great rejoicing to know that they are standing around the Throne of Glory singing praises to the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. They have put on incorruption and are in that great company who have gone before. They have run their race and crossed over the finish line. It is not how they started the race or even how they ran but how they finished their course. How will we finish ours? I have recently been around elderly Christians. Some are gracious and loving and even if they are in pain you would not know it. Their love for the Lord and for those around them shines through. They have gone through tremendously hard times during their lives and their walk with God but they do not reflect that—rather they reflect the Jesus in them. There is no bitterness, jealousy, depression or self but an outpouring of gentleness, acceptance and love. On the other hand I have been around some elderly who reflect none of these attributes and have to wonder how much flesh has been submitted to Christ. They seem to believe that because they are old everyone owes them something. I pray that I will always be aware of my actions around others - that I will always be a reflection of Jesus. Forgiveness and mercy is the fragrance that is cast back upon foot that crushed the lily or the rose. May we always remember that Jesus is our example and that if there is any example we are to follow it is Him.

Hazel was not old but was a shining example even in her pain. The Thanksgiving service for her was glorious and she expressed a desire that the Gospel should be preached throughout the service so that those who did not know Him would have an opportunity to hear about Him and His gift of salvation. She has left a legacy. None of us in the Kingdom should ever pass on without leaving a legacy. That legacy will always be souls or a means to winning souls for the Kingdom of God. Souls are the only thing that we can take with us when we go. Our worldly possessions are worthless when we stand before Him. I am always reminded of the final scenes of Schindler's List when he removes his ring and wonders how many Jews could have been saved had he given up that ring. When we reach the end how much will we leave behind in savings, stocks and shares and possessions or will we have invested into the Kingdom of God where moth and rust do not corrupt? How many souls will be credited to our account?

KALIBU ACADEMY OFFICIAL OPENING

Thanks to Greg and the staff at Hot Graphics for printing the invitation cards for the official opening of the school in Malawi. They have done a wonderful job and it is even better in color (you can see it in color on our web site : www.kalibu.org). The school actually opened to students in January. For those who are not sure, this is not a Bible School but a high school for young men and women from the age of 12 years to 18 years. It is equipped to handle 1,000 students with boarding facilities to house about 400. anyone who would like to attend please contact the office in Troy, MO as soon as possible via email: shekmin@aol.com or by phone (636) 462-5540.

CONTAINER

We are wanting to send a container to Africa At the end of April. The school still has many needs. We desperately need items for the Geography classes and for the Biology, Chemistry and Physics classes. Maps, world globes, wall charts, are all requested. For all those teachers out there—please see if there is old equipment that is no longer used by your school that can be donated. We also need furniture and supplies for the cottages. We need books for the school library—reference books and Christian books which can be boxed and sent via Media mail. I have just moved and have a 10' truck load of things that I no longer need that I will be taking to Toledo. I know that you have plenty of things laying around in your basement, garage or storage areas that is in good condition and that you will not be using. We always have far too much in our homes. Please send to the following address:
