AUTHORITY

Beloved Partners & Friends,
And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things and who gave thee this authority? There is authority that comes from men which authority is by virtue of ability, position or association. Sadly, much of this type of human authority is seen in the church and has little real bearing on the things of the Lord. There is true authority, however, that comes from the Lord by virtue of anointing through relationship. People of PURPOSE will always carry authority and all Christians ought to be people of purpose. A person of purpose has direction, drive, and goals. These qualities set men apart and with the real humility of the Lord, they carry the air of dignity and royalty as befitting true servants of God. Eliezer, that faithful servant of Abraham was just such a man. Sent on the most purposeful mission to find a bride for Isaac and there was no higher task with which to be entrusted. Eliezer went forth with determination and resolve carrying all the authority of his office, of his master and above all, of the Lord. Jesus carried all of the authority of His Father as a trusted servant. He declared, I come to do thy will O Lord. There was no other or greater purpose in His life than to fulfill the whole will of the Father and He was constrained or straightened until

He accomplished it. Men seek to have the authority of men but way more important is to have the authority of the Lord. The authority of the Lord confronts the principalities and powers in heavenly places and makes known to them the purposes of God. What a powerful reason to walk in the full authority of the Lord and to exercise that authority. A certain measure of authority is given to us immediately we enter into relationship with the Lord. Fuller authority however, comes by virtue of our being trusted because of our obedience and the relationship that we develop with the Lord. The world cannot possibly recognize nor understand the authority of the Lord because it falls completely outside the scope of the experience of the flesh. The supernatural cannot be explained by the natural. It is for this reason that the religious leaders challenged Jesus. They saw His power and it unnerved them because it was beyond their realm of explanation. Man always wants the last say and to place everything into neatly ordered paradigms. This just will not work with the Lord. In the days ahead, we are going to seriously need to walk in the authority of the Lord if we are going to defy the systems of the world; the systems of man and of the flesh. As we walk in the authority of the Lord it means entering into the deepest of relationships with Him. Then, we will be instantly obedient to His will and purpose so that His purpose becomes our purpose and the supernatural is manifested. It is a tragedy today that we see so little of the supernatural because even the church has believed in and trusted in the arm of flesh and the wisdom of men. A powerful new generation of believers must needs be raised up again to demonstrate the supernatural power of God through His vested authority.

KALIBU ACADEMY

Jas 1:25, "But the man who looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues to do this, not forgetting what he has heard, but doing it – he will be blessed in what he does."
As we work and live here on the Kalibu Academy campus we cannot stop rejoicing and being excited at seeing what God Almighty continues to do. Indeed, obedience of a man of God brings to fulfillment the greatest things. An obedient vessel is blessed in everything he does, and those involved with him in his work are blessed as well. Kalibu Academy continues to grow – in numbers of students and buildings. Now we have nearly 500 students and most of them are boarders. Seven more hostels are being constructed and four of them should be finished by the end of May which starts the beginning of then second term.

We also started the huge project of building the stadium and playgrounds for different sports like athletics, basketball, volleyball and others - an excavator (above) is leveling a huge area of the campus ground for this.

In Kalibu Academy we now have about 280 workers: drivers, cooks, security guards, cleaners, gardeners, carpenters, bricklayers, electricians, plumbers, welders. Most of these people are from the nearby villages. This means that this whole area is impacted by this wonderful work of God. First, all these people now have incomes and their lives have become easier – they can buy better clothes, they are able to pay school fees for their children. Second, these men and women, who used to live at poverty level now have the opportunity to see a different lifestyle and different standards. It takes years to learn to build straight or to wash and clean in a perfect way but after everything they have learned at the Academy they have started to apply it to their personal lives. And third, the staff workers of Academy now have many opportunities to share with those people their faith in our Savior Jesus Christ.

Let us continue being faithful in everything the Lord has entrusted us with and we will see His powerful hand moving in our personal lives, in the lives of those who are close to us and also those who are so far from us – in the lives of people in different nations!

NEW HOSTELS FOR BOARDERS

KALIBU ACADEMY

One of the great pleasures but also responsibilities of the ministry is to train the future spiritual leaders of the Church. Last September began a new two-year teaching cycle in the bible school. It is now truly international – the eight full-time students come from 5 different nations: Malawi, Mozambique, England, the United States and Finland. The students have class for 3 hours each weekday. There is a curriculum plan developed in the Sudan bible school that we follow, which thoroughly grounds the students in both theology and practical ministry. In the afternoons the students are involved in helping with the work of the Academy. Mark from England made himself available for discipling boy students of the Academy and the Headmaster appointed him one of the boarding masters! He is doing a fine work with them. Another student is the son of one of our Kalibu pastors in the villages, so represents the reproducing of the Gospel from the first generation of Kalibu's work in Malawi to the present generation. The student from Mozambique comes from one of the most remote places on earth – ask Pastor Navaya and former student Markus how many hours they walked to get to his village last year. Here again is fruit from the village ministry of Kalibu. All of the students and also this teacher give all of you, our friends and supporters, greetings and thanks for your support of the ministry of Kalibu, which has given them this opportunity to be trained in the ways and work of the Lord in the power of the blessed Holy Spirit and the love of the Father. God's blessing to you all!
