Beloved Partners & Friends

I have been looking in depth at the Gospel of John. There is no clear reason why Jesus loved John more than the other disciples, but he did. What an amazing positive power is love. How love heals, invigorates, inspires and fills us with every noble attribute and drives us to great vision and the attainment of that vision. The greatest is love! How very true is this statement. Deep and true love opens the heart, drives out fear, melts all negative emotions and brings us into revelation territory. You will never have a true revelation of Christ unless and until you fall deeply in love with Him. John had just such a revelation where he saw Christ in all His victory and glory. Nobody will have a great revelation of Christ if bitter water fills his or her fountain. True love brings the flow of sweet water so that out of our innermost being will flow mighty rivers of it. The thread and theme of love flows clearly through the Gospel of John unlike any other writer. John therefore reveals the tangible heart of the Father as made manifest through the pure working love of Christ who came to bring us into the bosom of His Father. In looking at John we have also therefore to look at his Epistles and the Book of Revelation. In all of John's writings is revealed this powerful message of love and the revelation of the true nature and character of the sublime Godhead through this love. You may have such love as well. In his epistle, John boldly declares, "God is love!?" Wow, what an amazing revelation of truth and the greatest, most noble and glorious attribute of the Father. He goes on to say, "They that live in love live in God and God lives in them." The amazing depths of this theme of love really know no bounds, wipe away all disappointments and bring us back into wonderful true life flow full of "zoe." Of the four Gospel writers John sheds great light on the heart of the Father through the heart of the son. He is John who gets down to the real heart of the matter of salvation as being the deep issue of fellowship through relationship. John shows in such depth the desire of God's heart to have man reconciled to Him and the lengths that the Father went to make this reality. "It pleased the Father to bruise Him..." for our redemption and, when "He shall see the travail of His son [He shall] be satisfied..." Oh what manner of love, amazing love the Father has bestowed upon YOU, yes YOU, beloved. To think that John as a son of thunder was so transformed by such amazing love is to give unbounded hope to the hopeless. He is John, this former son of thunder who so strongly commands "love not the world" because the world is all about the "lust of the eye, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life." What greater theme could ever course the entire Word than this powerful theme of love that culminates in the great high priestly prayer of Christ, Father make them one even as we are "one." "I in you and you in me and them in us," is the focus of this great prayer. To think that I may truly dwell with the Father in such unity and oneness can only come through true revelation and such revelation will only come from being in love. Remembering that the Lord commands His blessing where there is God-inspired, God-fired and God-breathed unity, it is no accident that the Lord Jesus demands this ONENESS so that we may live in God's purposes and see His presence in all we do. His blessings are not His material provisions but His very presence. Love makes emphatic God's greatest promise and gives assurance of the same that I may truly be ONE WITH HIM AND IN HIM! It is no wonder then, that he is John who trumpets Christ's theme, "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples if ye have love one to another." It is so hard to find such love today and therefore it is very difficult for the world to understand the true heart of God when they do not see it lived out and demonstrated in the very BODY OF CHRIST where the bride is married to the bridegroom in a covenant of love. May you take a moment of time right now as you read this to ask the father to baptize you with His father love through Jesus Christ? Receive that love right now by faith and experience the depths of the riches of Christ's purity and righteousness because of His nature of love. Watch as the love of God melts every selfish, personal characteristic and nature that is obtuse to such love and invigorates your whole being with His very nature, LOVE! Will you allow His love to saturate you right now and drive, yes DRIVE away all that is negative and opposes such love of the Father? Let every emotion that is contrary to love be banished right now and be invigorated by God's pure love that will bring healing to every area of your life.

THE LOVE OF GOD

KALIBU ACADEMY SPEECH AND PRIZE GIVING

Kalibu Academy held its first Annual Speech Night at the school hall on 9th October. It was a wonderful celebration after hard and dedicated work by teachers and students alike.

I quote the booklet of the Speech Night: "The 100% pass rate we obtained in the IGCSE exams last November is acknowledgment to the excellence at Kalibu Academy. What is particularly noteworthy is the fact that nonacademic students were coached into true education and steered through the exams. Today's speech night and prize giving is an acknowledgment to the fine investment of the administration, academic staff and students of this outstanding academy."

It was so uplifting to listen to the speech of the Guest of Honor, The Deputy Minister of Information and Civic Education of the Republic Of Malawi, Mr. Kingsley Namakwa. He was praising The Lord for everything that He is doing in and through our school.

The Blood of God	$15

Bwana is on his way to Finland for a conference. Following that he returns to Malawi in time for ICGSE examinations at the school for the senior students. Around November 20th the school bus arrives at the port of Richard's Bay in South Africa so he will fly down to pick it up and drive it up to the school.

At the end of November he heads out again for Finland for the annual Apostolic Conference where he will be joined by our dear and faithful friend Pastor VanderVlucht from Ohio.

Pastor Roz will be in the UK from the beginning of December for practical teaching on intercession and then will join Bwana in Finland. Please remember to pray for these meetings. There are people all over Europe who are hungry for the Gospel and Finland is definitely a key to Europe and will play a major role in revival. God is not done with Europe and wants to see multitudes come into the Kingdom but it takes hard work on our part in prayer and intercession and a word that we do not like to hear—FASTING.

God needs more Daniels and Moses', Ezekiel's and Jeremiahs who are prepared to spend time on their knees before the Throne crying out for the nations of the world so that there might be one more mighty ingathering before He returns.
